der Young Building, and see the new ball-bearing Denmore typewriters. A large new stock has just arrived and Heaters are no superfluous fixtures in a tropical climate. They are not needed to ward off cold but indoor moisture.

It is a common complaint at present that houses are beginning to smell like cellars. Use a heater and your home will feel healthful. W. W. Diamond & Co. have a fine assortment.

BIG DEAL IN LUALUALEI LANDS

DOWSETT BUYS THOUSANDS OF ACRES
FROM VON HOLT FOR $22,300—WATER RIGHTS AGREEMENTS.

Deeds have been placed of record for an important deal in Lualualei lands, which the government some time ago deeded to H. M. von Holt in exchange for lands needed in Honolulu for street widening. For a consideration of $22-300 a thousand acres of the land in question are deeded to J. M. Dowsett, with mutual reservations as to water rights and rights of way.

The tract granted to von Holt consisted of lots 8 and 9 of the Lualualei tract, containing altogether 2,229 acres.
In the deed to Dowsett, executed on February 13 before Notary Bigelow, a thousand acres is transferred for $22-300, with a provision that each party to the transaction shall have a right of way over the rest of the tract and shall have a right to enter on the rest of the tract and search or bore for water in any two places he may select, on the other party's land. In the event of finding water, either party is to have a right of way, over the other's land, for flumes and to have the right to construct and keep flumes in repair, also each reserves an option to buy from the other, for one dollar, two acres of land around the place where water may be found by searching to the agreement. The options as to searching for water and as to acres around where it may be found, also for right of way to carry it across each other's lands, lasts until June 30, 1935. The deed was executed by H. M. von Holt, Ida von Holt and J. M. Dow-sett.

WILL CALL PRIMARY.

It was reported this morning that Senator Crabbe, chairman of the Central committee, was about to call the old Territorial convention together for the purpose of selecting delegates to the national convention. Crabbe states, however, that such a call will not be issued, but that a primary election will be called.

BIRBE'S KICKS.

EDITOR STAR: I see by yesterday evening's Star that one of your reporters made use of my name in describing a particular brand of profanity in the office of Turk's attorney, and I wish to register the following kicks against the article in question:

1st. No brand of profanity could shock me except the particular brand passed out by Deacon Fernandez on election day.

2nd. I could not possibly have been shocked in this case because I am never found in the company of coons; nor in their offices.

3rd. I never mix up in family affairs.

THE TEST CASE
TO BE BROUGHT

TREASURER KEPOKAI AND ACT-ING ATTORNEY GENERAL PET-ERS HAVE A CONFERENCE.

The test case to be brought to decide whether the present method of carrying on the finances of the government, by drawing warrants under the old appropriation bills, was the subject of a conference this morning between Acting Attorney General Peters and Treasurer Kepoikai. Attorney General Andrews left instructions with Peters to begin the proceedings at once, and the latter this morning began the preparations.

It was decided by Peters and Kepoi-kai that the matter should be left to await a conference with Governor Carter, who is expected to return on Saturday from Hawaii. As soon as possible after his return the matter will be taken up with him, and a plan for bringing the matter before the Supreme Court will be arranged. In the meantime the affairs of the government will be carried on as now and the February salary warrants will be paid out of the last appropriation bills as was the case last month.

LADY IN LUG STORM.

The schooner Lady encountered a bad storm off Koolau yesterday. The captain says that the water was running very high and the wind whipped the sea into something like a whirlpool.
The vessel arrived this morning.
